

Land Focus Day

Wednesday 25 September 2019

Venue: NSW State Archives, 161 O'Connell Street, Kingswood

Program

10am	Arrival and morning tea
10.15am	Introduction – Land Ownership & Records in NSW Terry Kass, historian Terry Kass will provide a brief overview of land ownership and associated records in NSW from 1788 onwards.
11.15am	Land records held by NSW State Archives (pre-1856) Emily Hanna, archivist at NSW State Archives
12.15pm	Guided tour of the archives, with a look at some of the land records
1.15pm	Lunch break (not provided)
1.45pm	Case studies using the Historical Land Records Viewer (HLRV) Jeff Madsen, family historian Hear how the HLRV combined with files from NSW State Archives and Records produced the answer to questions on ownership of property at Yarras using Primary Application files and Conditional Purchase files. There will be a demonstration using the HLRV viewing Titles, Primary Applications and the Conditional Purchases Index.
2.45pm	Panel and question time