

Lost In Early Sydney

Saturday 2 & Sunday 3 November 2019

10am-4.30pm

Portside Centre, 207 Kent Street Sydney

Explore the lives of Sydney-siders from 1788 to the 1860s and find out about the records they left behind for your family history research

Preliminary program

Saturday

- ❖ Arriving in Sydney – how did I get here, who brought me, what assistance can I get, where do I go? Perry McIntyre
- ❖ Where did they live? Housing in Sydney 1788-1860s from the archaeology Wayne Johnson
- ❖ Early maps of Sydney – placing your families in the landscape City of Sydney Archives
- ❖ What records did a Sydney business leave behind and how do you find them? City of Sydney Archives – Susan Kennedy
- ❖ Spinning Tops & Gumdrops: A Portrait of Colonial Childhood * [Book, NLA Publishing March 2018] Edwin Barnard

Sunday

- ❖ Coming of the railways Bill Phippen
- ❖ Stories of Sydney from the SAG archives (Speaker tba)
- ❖ Government and the people NSW State Archives – Martyn Killion
- ❖ Early Sydney cemeteries Lisa Murray

The full program and session descriptions will be available shortly.

Bookings are now open through the SAG website here

Cost is $120 members, $140 non-members & includes morning and afternoon teas both days

(BYO lunch)