

Free Passengers to NSW 1826-1837

- ⚓ This is the first in a series being published which will cover free shipping to NSW to 1842. This CD contains nearly 36,000 names of passengers, military and crew on passenger ships, whalers and trading vessels. It also includes those who arrived on convict transports (but not convicts).
- ⚓ Fully searchable on a number of fields including name, ship, occupation, religion & nationality.
- ⚓ 19 original sources consulted – in some cases individuals can appear in up to 6 sources – all fully transcribed.
- ⚓ Family groups can be viewed together. Many records show parents of immigrants and other important details.
