

Join well-known family historian and published author, Dr Betty O’Neill for a one-day introductory workshop on Writing Family History.

Face to Face Workshop 9.30am to 4.00pm AEST Saturday 28 October 2023

$150 – Society Members

$190 – Non-members/public

Are you curious about your ancestors? Do you have a fascinating great-aunt you’d like to write about? Or maybe some lost relatives, secrets, lies or family mysteries to investigate? Betty’s questioning and researching turned out to be a bit of a detective story and yours could too!

In this introductory workshop we’ll explore:

- Who are you writing for and what genres and forms can your writing take?
- Where to begin with your research – planning, sources, tools and checklists
- Writing essentials – writing so others will want to read
- Let’s begin! Planning your first step

There’ll be time for some practice, questions and discussion with other participants.

If you’d like to get started on writing your family history or part of it, for your family or for a broader audience, register here:

Make 2023 the year you embark on a new researching/writing project and unleash your inner genealogist!

About the presenter

Dr Betty O’Neill is an author and a lecturer in Creative Intelligence and Innovation at the University of Technology Sydney. More information can be found on her website www.bettyoneill.com and you can also order a signed copy of her family history memoir The Other Side of Absence: Discovering my father’s secrets.

Contact us: (02) 9247 3953
info@sag.org.au
@SocAustGen